

Seeking Volunteers

Interested in being part of a diverse team committed to healthy watersheds and livable cities?

RiverSides (www.riversides.org) is an environmental non-profit organization committed to the protection of urban watersheds through education and pollution prevention at the homeowner and community level.

We are seeking energetic and enthusiastic Board Members and Volunteers for RiverSides Working Groups and general projects.

Qualifications:

- A commitment to the purpose and programs of RiverSides;
- High level of motivation;
- Ability to work in a team;
- Good organizational skills; and
- Expertise or interest in relevant Board or Working Group area.

Board Member (5 - 10 hours/month)

Together with other directors, take responsibility for ensuring fiscally sound and effective programs and operations by providing leadership, advice, direction and support to the staff and volunteers of the organization.

Qualifications:

- Applicable skills/networks in areas such as marketing, education, planning, design, research, legal issues, financial management

Volunteers in Working Groups/Committees (varies ~ 10hrs/month)

- Fundraising – seek out and evaluate grant and sponsorship opportunities; assist with grant applications and coordinating fundraising events
- Communications and Marketing – seek out and evaluate promotion and publicity opportunities, review content and design of materials; assist with hosting of events including trade shows, workshops and educational tours
- Rain Harvesting/ RainBarrel - review sales and promotion opportunities; assist in evaluation, research and design of rain harvesting programs/products

Other independent/team volunteer activities including research, events planning and delivery, rain barrel sales and promotion.

If you are interested in joining the RiverSides' team, please email or fax your CV and a brief letter or email outlining your interests to 416 868 1320 or emilya@riversides.org

For more information, please call Emily at 416 868 1983